Cake Walker Dead.

More Light.

The City Council has ordered six more electric lamps placed on various streets. When these are put in our town will have the best lighted streets in Central Kentucky.

Miscellaneous.

The road between here and Stanford is a disgrace to civilization. For miles it is a continual hole of mud from a foot to eighteen inches in depth. There is no excuse for such a condition of affairs.

New Livery Firm.

W. A. Arnold and J. I. Hamilton have taken charge of the livery stable in northeast corner of Public Square, and are thoroughly equipped for furnishing first-class turnouts on the shortest notice. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Much Amusement.

The skating rink is being well patronized by the young society folks. Messrs. Henry & Smith have to open the doors every night in the week now to accommodate the crowds. Go up and spend a pleasant hour in innocent amusement.

Good Capture.

Rice Bengie, while attending county court in Danville Monday recognized a horse as one recently stolen from Horatio Doty, of this county. He captured both horse and rider and brought them to Lancaster. John Wallace was riding the horse. He was lodged with jailer Ross.

They Are O. K.

Lancaster people ought not to kick if the electric lights are occasionally not burning. In other towns it frequently becomes necessary to shut down, but here it is the rarest occurrence. Our plant is tip-top and has fewer shut-downs than any in the state.

Here's a Chance to Help.

The Y. M. C. A., has engaged Polk Miller, the noted Platform Entertainer to appear at the Court House in this city Thursday evening, January 26. Part of the proceeds go to the association, and it is hoped the people will attend in large numbers.

Takes Charge.

Rev. Massie preached his first sermons in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. He is a young man of fine address and a preacher of no ordinary ability. The Record extends the right hand of fellowship to Rev. Massie and, on behalf of the community welcomes him as a citizen of the town.

Elms Accommodations.

Elljah Beazley has taken charge of the well-known Myers House in Stanford and is running one of the best hotels in Central Kentucky. The dining room is looked after by his sister Mrs. Pattie Beazley Hays, and is first-class in every particular. We heartily recommend the new management to the traveling public.

Skating Rink.

The skating rink is proving a source of great amusement to both old and young. The management have prepared special features for Friday and Saturday evening. They have added to their stock of skates and now have good skates for every one. The very best of order is preserved and good crowds are in attendance each night.

Former Lancaster Man.

Ellsworth (Kansas) papers tell of a big banquet given by the Odd Fellows and says "The Rev. J. R. Tercy was introduced and spoke upon the motto of the order, and, as only Mr. Tercy can, when he dilates upon the merits of Odd Fellowship, and made special reference to the occasion as a tribute to 'one whom this lodge delights to honor.'"

Backed Out.

The Stanford Journal says Briggs, Smith & Co., the Cincinnati brokers who bought the Lincoln county bonds through J. H. Sowder, have for frivolous reasons declined to take them. They want to wait for certain decisions and claim that as the fiscal court refused to pay interest on the bonds given turnpikes, that it may do so with them. It did not refuse to pay such interest except where the turnpike bondholders refused to return the bonds, which had been issued under a misconception of the law. The bonds will be sold again Feb. 15.

Those people always finding fault with the young men now have an opportunity to give the young fellows something to do beside loaf. Now show your colors, or shut up.

Good Prices.

A new scale of prices has been arranged by a North Carolina editor: "We will publish a ten verse poem for a load of wood; a three column story for a load of groceries, and we will cheerfully give space to obituaries of former subscribers at the rate of six laying hens per column."

Garrard's Entry.

Mr. R. L. Elkin is attending the Kentucky Poultry Association in Louisville this week. Mr. Elkin raises the Black Minorca breed, which is said to be very fine. He captured several prizes at the Louisville show last year, and we hope and believe he will be even more successful this time. He took ten of his best birds to exhibit.

Getting Figures.

Members of the City Council are receiving some figures on paving the Public Square with vitrified brick. Of course no steps will be taken if the work will cost too much, but an investigation should be made. The square is completely worn out, and the mud holes are a disgrace to a civilized community. Our citizens may rest assured, however, that the Council will do what's best with the matter.

Pretty Girls' Trouble.

Two pretty girl visitors to our town were overheard talking secrets. No 1 remarked, "These Lancaster boys are mighty nice fellows, but, Cesarsghost, how they do try to kiss you. Next time I come here, I'm going to wear a base ball mask." "You are right," replied No 2. "The other night Lether Owsley was here, and I thought I would have to fasten my wire bustle over my face to ward off his osculatory demonstrations."

Nothing New.

There is nothing to report in this issue as to the opera house and hotel. Mr. Ryan, one of the leaders of the scheme, can not be here before the first of next month, when all necessary papers will be signed. The promoters have taken an option on the Miller lot and the deal is practically closed. As not a wheel can be turned until good weather sets in, the promoters are taking matters easy. The required amount of money is secured, the lot virtually bought and only a few minor matters are to be attended to. Isn't this splendid news?

Boyle County Bonds Sold.

Forty-six thousand dollars' worth of Boyle county turnpike bonds, in denomination of $1,000 each, were sold at auction in Danville Saturday, to Sasongood & Mayer, of Cincinnati, at a total premium of $1,246. This is very close to 3 per cent. premium, and as the bonds are to run for only an average of eight years the sale was considered a splendid one. Rudolph, Keybolte & Co., of Cincinnati, were the highest bidders by a total of $4, but as their agent had failed to prepare himself for posting the $1,000 forfeiture demanded the other firm got the securities, although the highest bidders were perfectly able to procure the forfeiture in a short time.

A Western Cyclone.

The following is a Dakota paper's account of a cyclone: "A south-eastern wind hurled tumbled weeds and Russian thistles through the air at a twenty-nine mile gait and the gait went too. Many stoves were drawn out of the chimneys, the strong wind blew in at the neck of a bottle and blew the bottom out. Nebraska wagons on tracks passed over the town by the thousands. The strain on the wire fences was so great that staples were drawn out of the north side of the posts. A kerosene barrel standing in front of a grocery store was sucked out of the bung hole and turned inside out like a lady's slipper. The dirt blew from a post hole in the hill side and left the hole sticking out of the ground about two feet with the dirt around it."

Dear in Mind.

The Y. M. C. A. will meet in Odd Fellows Hall promptly at 7 o'clock, this, Thursday, evening. It is very important that all interested be present; as the roll of membership will be made up and several other matters of vast importance taken up and settled. The plan has met with great encouragement and it is an assured fact that the building will be erected. All having the matter at heart should be on hand tonight and say what they think about different matters connected with the association. The meeting, and not the street corner, is the place to do your talking. In next issue we will publish a list of those enrolled tonight. We want to say again, that young men from out in the county are especially invited to come in and share the benefits to be derived from this organization. The library, the gymnasium, the bath rooms and reading rooms are conveniences seldom to be found in a country town, and, after the people fully understand it's workings, all will praise the Y. M. C. A.

THE LOCAN DRY GOODS COMPANY.

Good for Garrard.

Judge Burnside, on Monday morning received from W. H. Harris, of Chicago, a draft on New York for $34,187. This is in payment for the turnpike bonds recently purchased by Mr. Harris. As soon as collected, the money will be distributed throughout the county to parties from whom the various roads were purchased. Accompanying the draft was a highly complimentary letter from Mr. Harris who said, among other nice things, that the papers sent him were the most complete and accurate set that had ever passed through his hands. This is very gratifying, in view of the trouble our neighboring counties are experiencing with their bonds.

Public Administrator Resigns.

L. F. Hubble has resigned the office of public administrator and guardian for Garrard county. When Mr. Hubble was appointed to this office, some eight years ago, the office was not very lucrative, but by his faithful attention to business he has made it pay from $300, to $500 per year. Mr. Hubble has made settlements of the estates in his hands and his accounts balanced to a cent. We understand Lewis L. Walker has been appointed to said office since Mr. Hubble resigned. Every county in the state ought to have a capable and efficient public administrator and guardian with an office at the county seat, and make that his business, then so many estates of infants would not be squandered by incompetent persons attempting to act as guardian.

Good Prospect.

Additional section men will be put to work on this branch of the L. & N. as soon as the weather opens up. There is a strong probability that the company will put day passenger trains here in the spring, and it will be done if the proper effort is made in that direction. The trains now running to Livingston could be easily made to connect at Rowland with both trains over there now meet at Junction City, and by having No. 23 leave Louisville thirty minutes earlier they could meet at Rowland. Then have the day trains now running to Livingston get to Rowland and leave at the same time and you will have close and perfect connection with both Cincinnati and Louisville from all over Central Kentucky. This arrangement has many other advantages which we will not set forth here, but if the matter is explained to the proper officials, it will undoubtedly be done.

Entertainment.

On Friday evening, Jan. 27, Miss Amanda Anderson will give the operetta "Snow White, and Seven Dwarfs" at the Court House. A great number of young folks and children will take part, and the affair promises to be of unusual enjoyment. Only 25 cents admission will be charged, and a seat reserved by applying at McRoberts Drug store. Full particulars next issue.

Lusk-Miller.

In the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, and a few close friends, the hearts and hands of Mr. George Lusk and Miss George Burdett Miller were united Monday morning. The ceremony was said by Dr. J. L. McKee at the beautiful residence of the bride's father, Col. John W. Miller, on Danville avenue. Promptly at ten o'clock the ushers, Messrs. Herbert Kinnaird and Will Lusk, entered the spacious parlor and each drew a white ribbon from the door to the bow-window, the latter beautifully arched with palms and evergreens. Then came the attendants, Miss Jane Lusk and Mr. John Paul Miller, who took positions on either side of the archway. The bride and groom came in together, to the strains of the wedding march, which was beautifully rendered by Miss May Z. Hughes. The couple took their sacred vows under the decorated archway. At the conclusion of the beautiful ceremony they did not leave the parlor, but stood and received the congratulations of those present. At 10:30 o'clock they took carriage for Danville and went direct to Tyrone, where Mr. Lusk is on duty as U. S. gauger. The bride is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. John W. Miller. She is a young woman of many sterling traits of character. She is handsome, intelligent, of sweet disposition and industrious. Mr. Lusk has won as a helpmeet through life, one who will surely do her part toward making their voyage happy, smooth and successful. She wore an elegant blue broadcloth suit, trimmed in white satin and hat to match. The groom is a son of Hon. William Lusk, deceased, and a young man of fine business qualities. He has a fine common school education and received a diploma in book-keeping at the famous Bryant & Stratton college in Louisville. The Record extends hearty well-wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Lusk.

The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. De Witt's Little Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver trouble. Small pill, best pill, safe pill. Stormes Drug Store.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. DANVILLE, Jan. 1, 1899.

Dear Friend Louis:

We must say your souvenir edition is a credit to any city, and the people of Lancaster may well be proud of such an enterprising young man. Your paper has done your city more good than anything the citizens might donate.

Accept my heartiest congratulations on the success of your undertaking. Wishing you a happy, prosperous New Year, I am your friend,

J. L. FROHMAN.

Little Come in Trouble.

Harve Kennedy, a little boy, shot at and tried to kill another little negro named John Stodgill Saturday morning. Harve was employed at the Hampton Hotel, and the other boy came down the alley to a back gate. They had a quarrel and Harve fired at the Stodgill boy with a 38 calibre Smith & Wesson revolver. The ball missed its mark and Marshal Walker came up and arrested Harve. He told the court he shot to kill and did not regret his action. A fine of twenty dollars was assessed, together with a promise from the boy's father to administer a severe flogging. The boy did not seem to fear the law, evidently having been about the court house and seen how promptly the white shooters are turned loose for similar crimes.

Recommended For La Grippe.

N. Jackson, Danville, Ill., writes: My daughter had a severe attack of La Grippe seven years ago and since then whenever she takes cold a terrible cough settles on her lungs. We tried a great many remedies without giving relief. She tried Foley's Honey and Tar which cured her. She has never been troubled with a cough since. 25c.

Some High Wheat Prices.

Wheat at $2 a bushel seems remarkable in view of the partial statement made a year ago, that dollar wheat would never again be realized in this country. But even this high figure does not represent some of the war prices that have prevailed in the past. In August of 1812—wheat reached the remarkable price of $6.60 a bushel the highest on record. This was due to the failure of the English crops, and the prohibitive tariff on cereals at that date. Fluctuations in the prices of wheat were violent in those days—before crop statisticians had developed their science of forecasting the future.

In August of 1810, wheat sold in England at $3.60 per bushel, and the following June fell to $2.69, then it advanced to $5.60 per bushel in August of 1812, and dropped to $2.30 in 1813. In 1866 we had a period of violent fluctuations in wheat prices—early in the year cash wheat sold in Chicago at 77¢ a bushel; but in November it was selling at $2.03 a bushel. Following this came the celebrated corner in wheat, which forced the price up to $2.85 a bushel May 1st. This is the highest level reached in this country in modern times. Several high levels have been reached by wheat since then, but they were caused chiefly by speculators, who cornered the market and gave an artificial value to the cereal.

In August 1872 wheat sold in Chicago at $1.61, and by November it was down to $1.01. In 1887 an attempt was made to corner the wheat market and when cash wheat was selling at 80¢ it was freely predicted that $2 wheat would be reached inside of three months; but the syndicate of speculators had not made good calculations. The stocks were much larger in the country than they anticipated, and wheat pushed in from every quarter. On June 15th the corner collapsed, and in three hours wheat dropped from $2.40 to 75¢ a bushel. In 1888 speculators cornered the market successfully and forced the price of wheat up from 81¢ in April to $2 a bushel on Sept. 30th.

DIDN'T GO THROUGH.

Judge Burnside Refuses to Recognize an Order Granting Magistrates a Salary and Giving them Control of the Roads.

In the Fiscal Court last week the magistrates presented the following order and wanted it passed. The judge refused to recognize it and ordered the clerk to not record it. We understand the magistrates say they will proceed regardless of the judges objections, though no steps have yet been taken. The judge says the whole thing is contrary to law and he does not propose to have anything to do with any such order. Here is the order in full:

PUBLIC ROADS.

Be it, and it is hereby ordered, that the following shall be the management of the Public Roads in and for Garrard county, for the year 1899:

The pikes of said county acquired therein and therefore shall be divided into four equal districts, the same and equal number of miles to compose each district.

Said district shall be placed under the absolute control and supervision of the magistrates or justices of the Peace in and for said county, each magistrate to have the district nearest to him, and when in the radius, said magistrate can be called in the shortest period of time, or as near to as practicable.

Said magistrates shall make contracts and employ labor for the reparation and maintenance of said roads in their several districts, and when bills thereunder are approved by said magistrate or magistrates herein, a warrant shall be given on the County Treasurer by the magistrate so approving, and shall be paid by said treasurer out of the funds allowed, and set aside for the maintenance of Public Roads in Garrard county.

Said magistrates shall meet from time to time before any contract or any employment of labor is entered into or money paid for same, and shall determine out of road fund that portion which shall be expended on roads in each district; provided, however, that the expenditure on and for same, shall not in any case exceed the amount so allotted and set aside, nor shall the whole amount exceed that portion allotted and set aside for the Public Roads in and for Garrard county.

Said magistrates shall report their acts, contracts entered into, labor employed and money expended, together with reports of condition of roads in their several districts, to the Court of Claims and the Judge and Attorney thereof twice a year at its regular terms (April and October), and said magistrates shall have the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) each, as a compensation for the management herein, to be paid by the County Treasurer out of the Public Road fund, and no committee fee shall be charged by or paid to said magistrate for work which this compensation is for, and they and each one shall be responsible upon their or his official bonds or bond for the faithful discharge of their duties herein.

This order to take effect at the time and after its passage and approval. Section 1844, Ky. Statutes, says: No member of the fiscal court shall be interested, directly or indirectly, or be concerned in any contract for work to be done or material to be furnished for the county, or any district thereof, nor purchase or be interested in any claim against the county or state. Any member of the fiscal court who shall violate the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense.

ELECTROPOISE

The Electropoise does not, however, confine its cures along any particular line. It cures by removing the cause causing the system to absorb Oxygen, purifying the blood, and building up the system.

Dear Sirs: The goitre has entirely disappeared from Mrs. Wilson's neck, and she is the proudest and most grateful woman in the world. The Electropoise has accomplished what the physicians and medicines could not. More than seven years ago she was told that she could never be cured. The Electropoise contradicted the opinion of learned doctors, has removed the swelling, and she is entirely well.

I have under my observation another case of goitre that is being rapidly cured. It is my only doctor, and I use it in my family for all ailments.

A FOX-HUNTING COLONEL.

Roger D. Williams, of Lexington, Will Command the 8-Cont. Regiment, Kentucky State Guard.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 16.—Gov. Bradley has decided to make Col. Roger D. Williams, of this city, the colonel of the 24 regiment, Kentucky state guards. Col. Williams is the well known fox hunter, and is one of the officers of the National Fox Hunters' association. He is a warm friend of Gov. Roosevelt, and that gentleman asked him to get up a company of Kentuckians for his rough riders in the event he failed to get enough men in the west.

As a hunter of big game, Col. Williams is the equal of Gov. Roosevelt. They have hunted much together, and it was in the great west that they became acquainted. As a dog fancier Col. Williams is well known all over the union and in England. He imported the first pair of Irish wolf hounds ever brought to this country, and he has been breeding bloodhounds for years.

WAR AGAINST SALOONISTS.

Temperance Spies Out On Their Regular Sunday Routs At Lexington and Meet With Warm Reception.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 16.—The war which has been bitterly waged between temperance people and saloon men over the Sunday closing law, culminated Sunday. Through the evidence of Bible students, who acted as spies, the temperance people obtained over 100 indictments against saloonists before the last grand jury. Sunday night spies started on the regular Sunday rounds and met with warm receptions. They were badly beaten up in some places and elsewhere were stoned. It is not known what action will result.

Ex-Gov. Brown Not a Candidate.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 17.—Ex-Gov. John Young Brown, in a card which he gave out Monday night, announced his withdrawal from the race for governor. This will be a great surprise for politicians, since three days ago it was given out that he would be a candidate for the renomination. This leaves the fight between Senator Wm. Goebel and Gen. P. W. Harkin. Ex-Congressman Stone is still a candidate, but is not figured in.

Bullion Train Halted.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 17.—The United States bullion train on the L. & N., with $286,000 in silver aboard, was halted by the accidental going out of a signal light near Lagrange. The guards rushed to arms, but the expected robbers did not appear. The train was en route from Philadelphia to New Orleans.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 17.—A non-committal verdict was returned Monday by the coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of Charles Williamson, the wealthy sporting man who was shot by Ike Smith a few nights ago. One witness testified that the shooting was in self-defense and others that it was unprovoked.

Catarrh Leads to Consumption.

A Forerunner of the Most Fatal Disease.

Though its offensive features are sometimes almost unbearable, few people are aware of the danger of which Catarrh is the forerunner. Catarrh invariably leads to Consumption. Growing worse and worse each winter, those who rely upon the usual treatment of sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures find that it is impossible to check the disease with these local applications which only reach the surface. The offensive discharge increases all the while, causing a feeling of personal defilement, and gets deeper and deeper until it is only a question of a short time until the lungs are affected.

The importance of the proper treatment can therefore be readily appreciated. But no good whatever can be expected from local applications, as such treatment never did cure Catarrh, and never will.

A DOUBLE SUICIDE.

Look Poison Because Her Liver Did Not Write to Her—Got Her Cousin to Join Her.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 18.—Cammie Church, aged 16, of Gallatin, Tenn., was found dead in bed Wednesday morning at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Aggie Johnston, at 1415 West Broadway. Death was the result, it is said, of a deliberate attempt at suicide planned by Miss Church and her cousin, Miss Florence Johnston, who is about the same age. A disappointment in love was the primary cause. Miss Church had for some time been corresponding with a young man in the south. Tuesday she failed to receive a letter she expected from him. This made her despondent.

In the afternoon papers she read an account of the suicide of Merchant McCoun. She brooded over it so that she decided to take her life, and persuaded her cousin to make a like attempt with her.

Going to Shafer's drug store, near home, they bought 10 cents' worth of morphine at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. Going home, they took this, and, leaving the bottle on the kitchen table, crept into bed. The time is not known, but it is thought to have been about midnight.

Mrs. Johnston, aunt and mother, slept in the same room. She knew nothing about it until she awoke in the morning to find her niece, Miss Church, dead and her daughter in a stupor. Physicians were summoned at once, and by heroic efforts kept the living girl from succumbing to the drug. Miss Church is the daughter of an L. & N. engineer at Gallatin, Tenn. She had been visiting here a month.

A Sheriff's Double M. A. Son.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 18.—Sheriff Richard E. Palin, of Oldham county, was in Louisville Tuesday on a queer combination of missions. He came to get married and to get a scaffold on which to hang a man. In both he was successful. He crossed to Jeffersonville with Miss Katie Riggs, of Owensville, and was married by Rev. T. M. Myers. Then he went to Sheriff Bell and borrowed a scaffold on which to hang Henry Miller, colored, at Lagrange on February 3. Miller has been sentenced for an assault committed on Mrs. Leete.

Settled With His Victim.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 18.—Jos. B. Ramsey, county clerk at Winchester, Ky., had returned to his home town after months of wandering and fleeing from justice. He had been in Tennessee. He has settled with those defrauded by the forgeries. It is not believed he will be prosecuted.

Planned Out for State Senator.

A Grip Cure.

President George T. Angell, of the American Humane Education Society, offers what he claims is a panacea for the evil, says the Philadelphia Record. Sulphur is the preventive he suggests. "It has been shown," he says, "how wearing sulphur in the clothing has prevented yellow fever, cholera and other diseases. Half a teaspoonful of powdered sulphur in each shoe or stocking is considered to be sufficient. I find in the London Lancet that no less authority than the President of the Institute of Civil Engineers of London declares that the sulphurous vapor produced by the combustion of coal in that city kills the disease germs in the atmosphere. Sulphur is very cheap, and whether it destroys or keeps out germs of disease from the body or only acts upon the imagination it cannot do much harm to try it."
